

Exmouth Wildflower Warden Record Sheet

Date	Species	Location - name	Location - grid	Abundance	Notes	Photo?
2017-2021	Meadow Buttercup	Bapton Valley Park	SY 012 828
Initial wildflower	Southern Marsh Orchid (x1)	Meadow and surrounding areas
Survey: 2017	Red Clover			(Abundant: important wildflower for pollinators)
and added to	White Clover			(Abundant: important wildflower for pollinators)
	Hogweed
	Knapweed			(Abundant: important wildflower for pollinators)
	Birdsfoot Trefoil			(Abundant: important wildflower for pollinators)
	Smooth Tare			Abundant
	Common Vetch			important wildflower for pollinators
	Tufted vetch			important wildflower for pollinators
	Daisy sp.
	Ragwort			Pollinator friendly and Cinnabar Moth larval food source
	Catsear			(Abundant: important wildflower for pollinators)
	Thistle sp.			(Abundant: important wildflower for pollinators)
	Dandelion
	Willowherb sp.

Exmouth Wildflower Warden Record Sheet

	Other species across the Bapton Valley			Butterflies seen over last few years:	Moths:
	Herb Robert			Common Blue (every year)	Silver Y
	Galium (Cleavers)			Meadow Brown (every year)	Six spot Burnet
	Cinquefoil			Speckled Wood (every year)	Cinnabar
	Nettle			Marbled White
	Dog rose			Ringlet (every year)	Other invertebrates:
	Goatsbeard			Small Tortoiseshell	Common Red Soldier Beetle	Wasp Spider
	Fleabane			Comma (every year)	Thick-legged flower beetle	Wolf Spider
	Marsh and Hedge Woundwort			Skipper sp. (every year)	Bee sp. (various)	Funnel Spider
	Hemlock Water-Dropwort			Red Admiral (every year)	Marmalade Hoverfly	Grass Spider
	Ransons			Peacock (every year)	Hoverfly (Helophilus pendulus)	Crab Spider sp.,
	Yellow Archangel			Small and Large Whites (every year)	Hoverfly (Chrysotoxum bicinctum)	Yellow Meadow ant
	Lords and Ladies (Arum Maculatum			Green Veined White	Marsh Snipefly	Shield Bug(s)
	Lesser Celandine			Small Copper	Thick headed fly	Tortoise Bug

Exmouth Wildflower Warden Record Sheet

	Enchanter's Nightshade			Gatekeeper (every year)	Yellow Dung Fly
				Other : Parasol Fungus	Blow fly
				Grasshoppers (various species)	Lygus Bug	